 Our parish is hosting the Catholic Mission appeal last weekend (October 21/22)
Reach out. Give life.
WHOEVER DRINKS OF THE WATER THAT I SHALL GIVE, WILL NEVER THIRST AGAIN John 4:14
Thank you for your prayers and generous contributions for this year's Catholic Mission World Mission Appeal supporting the forgotten farming families of Vietnam, and throughout the world. Your considered gifts will help provide a new clean drinking water filtration system for the people of the coastal mountain region of Xuan Son. We invite you to consider partnering with us through a regular monthly gift and continue your support of the life-giving work of Catholic Mission.
Envelopes are still available in both churches should you want to donate.

Congratulations to the candidates for confirmation this weekend:
Randle dela Pena Asuelo
Queen Hanna Lea Balbastro
Guthrie Zoe Dodson Bendal
Allyanna Danielle R Dimatulac
Gian Carlo R Dimatulac
Sean Loriner Dimatulac
Adison Michelle Christine (Monica) Fraser; Patrick James Sarabia Gabejan; Kideah Andrea A Gumapac; Hanz Darren Hababag
Julian Marcus Ocampo; Princess Nicole Badayos Suerte
Mary Margaret (Barbara) Taylor; Laurice Jasmeen Lasala Terte
Danzylyvy Bayana Torralba; Athea Therese Viojan

 Welcome to Bishop Ken for the pastoral visit and to celebrate Confirmation for our 16 candidates.
A variety of activities have been planned over the weekend with everyone invited to attend.

Each week for the next few weeks we will include the Saints names the candidates have chosen:
Saint Monica: also known as Monica of Hippo, is St. Augustine of Hippo's mother. She was born in 331 A.D. in Tagaste, which is present-day Algeria. When she was very young, she was married off to the Roman pagan Patricius, who shared his mother's violent temper. Patricius' mother lived with the couple and the duo's temper flares proved to be a constant challenge to young Monica. While Monica's prayers and Christian deeds bothered Patricius, he is said to have respected her beliefs. Three children were born to Monica and Patricius: Augustine, Navigius, and Perpetua. Unfortunately, Monica was unable to baptize her children and when Augustine fell ill, Monica pleaded with Patricius to allow their son to be baptized. Patricius allowed it, but when Augustine was healthy again, he withdrew his permission.
For years Monica prayed for her husband and mother-in-law, until finally, one year before Patricius' death, she successfully converted them. As time passed, Perpetua and Navigius entered the religious life, but unfortunately Augustine became lazy and uncouth. This greatly worried Monica, so when Patricius died, she sent the 17-year-old Augustine to Carthage for schooling. While in Carthage, Augustine became a Manichaeon, which was a major religion that saw the world as light and darkness. Feast Day: August 24
Saint Barbara.: also known as the Great Martyr Barbara, was an early Christian Greek martyr born mid-third century in Heliopolis, Phoenicia. Barbara was the daughter to a rich pagan named Dioscorus. After the death of Barbara's mother, Dioscorus dedicated his life to his only daughter. Barbara was known for being extremely beautiful. As a way of "protecting" her, Dioscorus shielded her from the world by locker her high up within a tower. He allowed only her pagan teachers to see her. Barbara spent her days gazing upon the hills and admiring all of God's creations. She often pondered about the "First Cause and Creator of so harmonious and splendid a world." She soon realized the idols her father and teachers worshiped were not of God's creation.
Barbara secretly became a Christian and dedicated her life to knowing the true God and making Him known to others. She offered herself completely to the Lord, choosing a life of consecrated virginity. As Barbara grew older, her father, Dioscorus began presenting men to her for marriage. She refused them all and warned her father that his persistence could forever damage their relationship. Dioscorus allowed for Barbara to leave her tower, hoping some freedom would change her attitude. Barbara used this opportunity to meet other Christians. They taught her about the Lord Jesus, the Holy Trinity and the Church. A priest from Alexandria, disguised as a merchant, baptized Barbara into Christ and His Church. Feast Day 4 December
